POETRY CORNER

Cry

cry,
but not so much as to drown
in your tears.

doubt,
but not so much as to lose
your faith.

fear,
only those ideas that
can't be questioned.

mourn,
only as much as it helps heal your soul.

sing,

with all your heart but not so loud as to drown out others.

see,
not only with your eyes but
with your soul.

listen,
to others when they agree with
you,
but especially when they do not.

give,
even when you know you will receive

nothing in return -
especially when you know you'll
receive
nothing in return.

pray,
only as much as it
prompts action.

be
someone who's proud, yet
not conceited.
someone who takes charge, yet never takes advantage.

I Don't Know

BY ROBERT BURNS
GRADE12/HERNDON HIGH

Dreams break twist mix into my current reality Seconds pass stay wave go away from my steady mind

Ground shakes breaks lies awake fakes for something clear to find

Soul flows knows can't and blows to be just out of time

It Died
It's Dead

Oak Hill Elementary Receives SAR Flag Certificate

In February, Fairfax Resolves President Jack Sweeney, supported by chapter Color Guard members Larry McKinley, Dan Rolph and Darrin Schmidt, presented the Oak Hill Elementary School Principal Dr. Amy Goodloe and Assistant Principal Phyllis Sledge SAR Flag Certificates. This was in recognition of their emphasis on teaching the importance of displaying the American Flag. Also recognized were the teacher Safety Patrol leaders, Elizabeth Price and Ernie Herring. The four Safety Patrol Captains were also awarded SAR Good Citizenship certificates and pins for their daily flag duties. McKinley explained the Children of the American Revolution and the Color Guard answered questions about their Revolutionary War uniforms.
