Transcribed and annotated by C. Leon Harris

State of Indiana}

Warrick County} SS     On this ninth day of October in the year 1833 personally appeared before the Honourable the Judges of the Warrick County Circuit Court in open Court Thomas Richardson of Hart Township in said Warrick County in the State of Indiana aged seventy one years who being first duly Sworn according to Law doth on his oath make the following Declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. In September 1780 he entered the militia service, in Bedford County, Virginia, for a three months tour as a volunteer under Captain Jacob Earley [Early], Lieut. Col. William Lefraidge [sic: Leftwich] and Col. [Charles] Lynch Officers from the same County. Rendezvoused at Major [John] Ward's on Staunton river, marched to Cumberland old Court house, from thence to Petersburg, where we remained in Camp on Long awnery [sic: at Long Ordinary] about three fourths of a mile from Petersburg, and was here discharged after a two months service, as a private, during which time this applicant avers that he followed no Civil pursuit, but was in the actual service of the United States. In the month of November or December in the same year of 1780 he again entered the service of the United States as a substitute for George Conduff [probably Cundiff], of the same County of Bedford, Virginia, under Capt. John Trigg, rendezvoused at Thomas Lefraidges in said County, marched to Petersburg, thence to Cabin point [in Surry County], where he was assigned to the command of Captain Alexander Cummings, Major John Decloman [Jean Baptiste De Lomagne] & Col Maryweather [sic: Meriwether], the two latter were said to have been Regular officers, marched to long bridge [sic: Great Bridge] fort near Portsmouth, served his full tour of three months, but received no discharge as he recollects, during which time he followed no Civil pursuit but was in the actual service of the United States as a private. In the spring of 1781 about two weeks after he returned from the second tour he again entered the service in Bedford County, Virginia, as a substitute for John Ayers under Capt Ota [sic: John Otey] for a three months tour, rendezvoused at Thomas Lefridges in the same County, was marched throug new London [in present Campbell County], through Petersburg, from thence to Cabin Point, from thence to long bridge fort near Portsmouth, served under Major Decloman and Colonel Maryweather, Served his full tour, but received no discharge as he recollects during which time he followed no Civil pursuit, but was in the actual service of the united states as a private. And shortly after his return he again entered the service as a volunteer in the year 1781 under Captain William Bean, Maj. Jonathan Tipton & Colonel John Sevier in Washington County, marched from Washington County, thence North Carolina, near the town of Jonesborough [sic: Jonesboro] against the Cherokee Indians. Served about one month as a private. That he has no Documentary proof, nor does he know at this time of any person by whom he can prove his services.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a Pension or Annuity except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any State or Territory in the United States.

NOTE: On 13 Jul 1843 Elizabeth Richardson, 77, applied for a pension stating that she married Thomas Richardson in VA on or about 19 Nov 1781, and he died 15 Jan 1840. She noted that her husband could not write, but he appears to have been able to sign his name to the declarations. On 22 Mar 1854 Jacob Richardson assigned power of attorney to pursue his deceased mother's claim to a pension.
